

UNIONS MAKE A DIFFERENCE

As members of SEIU Virginia 512's Fairfax County Government Employees Union chapter, we pride ourselves in being solution driven. Below, you'll find just a few examples of our history of winning. Now, we're fighting for a fair and equitable pay plan and a fully-funded raise in the next budget.

Will you stand with us?

COUNTY PROPOSALS

In February 2009, the county proposed a reduction in force of 524 employees.

In 2011, County Executive Tony Griffin proposed no raises for FY 2012.

In 2012, County Executive Tony Griffin proposed no raises for FY 2013.

In 2012, the county tried to eliminate defined benefit pensions.

In 2012, the county proposed stricter guidelines on Family Medical Leave.

In the 2013 budget, County Executive Ed Long proposed STRIVE, which included drastic changes to employee compensation and no increases until 2015.

THE UNION DIFFERENCE

Through cost-saving suggestions, only four Fairfax County employees were laid off.

We advocated for and won the first raises ever in a carryover budget.

We advocated for and won the first Market Rate Adjustment in 10 years and a 2.5% performance award for Jan. 2013.

We testified before the board of supervisors, collected hundreds of petitions and saved current employee pensions.

We testified before the Civil Service Commission and preserved our rights.

We pushed back to stop STRIVE, won a cash bonus and are now at the table with management and the Board of Supervisors to create a real pay plan for county employees.

Think of what we could win if we continue to grow. Join today by filling out the application on the back and faxing it in or giving it to a union member.
